THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

❖ DECEMBER 10, 2023 ❖ 8:00 & 10:00 AM ❖

WELCOME TO GRACE!

We are glad you are with us!

Grace Memorial is part of the Jesus Movement in the Episcopal Way.

We are a community of story, symbol, service, and song.

We are a church of people with and without disabilities. Those who need to vocalize or move during the service are welcome to do so.

Please let us know that you are here by filling out a newcomer card and giving it to an usher or clergy person – or by saying “hi” in the YouTube chat.

COVID PROTOCOLS

There are high-quality (MERV-13) filters in Grace’s HVAC system. Grace strongly encourages vaccination. We support the choice to wear a mask.

CHILDREN & YOUTH

Children are welcome and expected throughout the service. For those families who would prefer it, nursery care is available beginning at 9am in the Nursery downstairs. For older children, Church School gathers in the Mason Burnham room after the service’s opening collect (i.e., prayer).

MINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENT ❖

Share the gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ, and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes apathy, alienation, and despair, then you are invited to share in the cup of the new covenant. The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Intinction (i.e., the practice of dipping the bread into the chalice) is not permitted. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest.

The bread is gluten-free at the 10am service.

Prayer and Laying On of Hands for Healing

If you wish a particular prayer for yourself or for someone else, you are invited to go to the prayer station located to the right of the altar. Give your first name and share your prayer need, and the prayer team will quietly offer prayers. Anything you share is confidential.

Tonight at 5pm in the Chapel of the Nativity – Celtic Service & Holy Eucharist – Come be with us!

This Sunday, December 10th at 5:00 p.m., we are offering a Celtic Service with Holy Communion, Rite II, in our lovely Chapel of the Nativity. The theme of our Celtic service this month is the theme for the Second Sunday of Advent: LOVE.

Our Celtic worship is drawn from the liturgical traditions of Iona and Northumbria, and the music at these services is contemplative and beautiful. The prayers are at once holy, inclusive, and universal. Our first Celtic service was well received, and so we are offering it again on this second Sunday of the month. There is no traditional sermon, but it includes a brief reflection near the beginning of the service given by a lay person or sometimes by a member of the clergy. All are welcome!

Grace ADVENT Formation continues on this Wednesday, Dec. 13 at 7pm on ZOOM.

Grace Adult education for Advent 2023 is focusing on Practicing Wonder with All Your Heart, Soul, Strength, and Mind using the Living Well Through Advent resource from Living Compass. This devotional is printed and is also available online. It will be followed by Compline at 8pm on ZOOM. <https://www.livingcompass.org/advent>

Please speak to or email Deacon Liz if you would like a printed copy. We will meet Wednesday Evening at 7 PM on Zoom and review the Gospel for the next Sunday and talk about the daily devotions for the week. The link is on the website and in Grace notes. The power of wonder and love helps us pay attention to the Sacred that is present in every moment. Our hope is to help each other to see God more clearly, love Him more dearly, and follow Him more nearly this Advent and Christmas season.

The Greening of Grace will take place on Sunday, December 17 at 1:00pm. This is always a joyful and fun ALL HANDS-ON time together to make our church look lovely for Christmas! Please volunteer to help get Grace ready for Christmas! Please let Kevin Walsh, Jo Bronson, or Gillian Weisgram know if you would like to help!

THANK YOU! We would like to thank everyone for helping the Women of Grace complete another successful Holiday Bazaar and Art Faire. We are very grateful to all of the volunteers who worked Friday morning and Saturday. Also, thank you to all of the quilters who made the beautiful quilt. If you didn't get your tickets yet they will be available on Sunday throughout Advent.

The Bazaar made around $5,000.00 in profits this year. We will have a more exact figure once all of the expenses have been paid. These funds help to fund various projects in the church. For example, last year money from Women of Grace provided Grace Art Camp scholarships, discretionary funds for clergy, supplies for St. Mary's Guild, piano tuning, and various other items.

As I mentioned, we couldn't have done it without each and every one of you who volunteered. There are a few specific people I would like to thank. First, thank you to my co-chairs, Sharon, Connie, Debbie and Mariann. Thank you to Kristin for making sure we had a presence on social media. Thank you to JoAnn and Judith who were there for the set up and stayed for the clean-up. Thank you to Rick and Curt who helped with many different tasks. Lastly, thank you very much to all of the other volunteers and to all of you who supported us by coming to shop!

Sincerely, Susan Germundson

Note: The bulletin editor would like to extend a note of THANKS to the amazing Susan Germundson, who every year makes jars and jars of special wonderful jams for the Grace Holiday Art Faire. Thank you, Susan!
