GREAT THANKSGIVING ♦

Eucharistic Prayer C, BCP pg. 369

Presider
People

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People

By your will they were created and have their being.

Presider

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Presider Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

Presider And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS LEVAS II 256 ♦ Holy, holy, holy

Music: Betty Carr Pulkingham (b. 1928), Freedom Mass. Based on traditional African melodies. Copyright © 1989 Celebration, Aliquippa, PA 15001. All Rights Reserved. International Copyright Secured. Used by permission.

Presider And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Presider

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Presider

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Presider Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

People

AMEN.

Presider

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER ♫

BCP pg. 364; S-149

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD ♫

FRACTION ANTHEM ♦

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

MINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENT ♦

Share the gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ, and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes apathy, alienation, and despair, then you are invited to share in the cup of the new covenant. The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Intinction (i.e., the practice of dipping the bread into the chalice) is not permitted. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest.

The bread is gluten-free at the 10am service.

Prayer and Laying On of Hands for Healing

If you wish a particular prayer for yourself or for someone else, you are invited to go to the prayer station located to the right of the altar. Give your first name and share your prayer need, and the prayer team will quietly offer prayers. Anything you share is confidential.

Grace News

Today: a special welcome to the Very Reverend Canon A-Too Williams

Dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral in Monrovia, Liberia.

Dean Williams has been a guest of Grace for these past two weeks, preaching at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, St. Phillip the Deacon Episcopal Church and at Grace this morning. We are grateful for our longtime Companion Parish Ministry with Holy Trinity Cathedral, Monrovia, Liberia. Thank you to Charles A. McGee II for arranging this special visit.

Grace and Trinity Cathedral in Monrovia have a long relationship beginning with parishioner James Smith's arrival at Grace in 1989, followed by his brother in 1991, Charles A. McGee II, who was seeking political asylum in the United States. Grace facilitated bringing over Charles' family in 1993, removing them from repeated peril from the war. Both James and the McGees remain engaged with local needs in Liberia. In 2000 Bishop Robert Laderhoff of the Diocese of Oregon and Bishop Edward Neufville of the Diocese of Liberia formalized the Companion Parish Relationship between Grace Memorial and Trinity Cathedral in Monrovia. The following year, during a period of war when goods could be safely received, Grace Companion Parish Committee, with the assistance of donations from the Oregon Episcopal School, shipped a 40-foot container of school supplies, food, clothing and other badly needed supplies to Liberia for distribution.

In 2009 a delegation from Grace visited Trinity Cathedral in Monrovia where they met with Archbishop Jonathan B.B. Hart, Vicar Victor King, and parishioners at the Cathedral and discussed a wide range of ways Grace and the Cathedral could be mutually supportive and enriched through a continued relationship. The delegation also met briefly with President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf.

Trinity and Grace pray weekly for each other, while Grace and Trinity provided virtual sermons for one another during the pandemic. Previously, several clergies from Trinity in Monrovia preached remotely and in person at Grace, while Trinity has gifted the Grace clergy with an African Chasuble and Stoles, and donated a beautiful carved wooden cross, often used in Grace processions.

Clergy from Trinity who have visited Grace included: late Dean Emmanuel Johnson and Rev. Himie-Budu Shannon, and Dean Jonathan B.B. Hart.

This project allows the Episcopal community of Portland to offer a caring hand and greatly needed assistance to its brothers and sisters at Trinity Cathedral in Monrovia and the B.W. Harris Episcopal School.

Grace Memorial invites you to let your charity shine and help restore hope and healing to a people, church and school still striving to rebuild after a brutal civil war.

Please make donations to: Grace Memorial Episcopal Church and write in the Memo: Companion Parish or Borehole Well Project. Donations are tax deductible.

For additional information, please contact Charles A. McGee II: (503) 250.2126 or charlesamcgeeII@yahoo.com.

Racial Justice & Environmental Action Team

Our next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, July 23rd at 6:30pm on zoom! See you there!

Join the Grace Racial Justice and Environmental Action Team in our work towards a livable, just planet for everyone. Bring your ideas, enthusiasm and willingness to participate. We meet on Zoom once a month. We generate ideas, choose how to pursue them, and work with each other to realize them. The church supports our efforts by letting us share space and other resources.

Our projects so far have included the Mark Braverman talk, climate presentations, the Anne North Memorial Library, and petitions for government action to slow climate change and to adapt to it, an Earth Day event, organizing donations of kitchen items for people newly housed by Family Promise, and a poster about the beauty of the earth and the challenges facing it. The Zoom link is <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84393352594>

We generally send a provisional agenda before the meeting, and meeting notes afterwards.

Flowers for the Altar at Grace

Each Sunday the beautiful flowers in our church at GRACE are provided by our parishioners for all to enjoy!

Flowers are offered in memory of departed loved ones, to celebrate blessings, or simply to rejoice in the Glory of God!

Sign up for the date you would like to have the flowers placed on the altar or please let Jo Bronson know what day you would like to offer flowers.

You may bring flowers from your garden, order them from Broadway flowers, or ask for help from Jo Bronson.

Suggested donation: $60 which pays for one week of flowers. If you have additional questions, please contact Jo Bronson, Flower Guild leader at peggybronson@gmail.com or the church office: hello@grace-memorial.org.
